The present proposal for conducting the Seminar for Sudanese Principal District and Sessions Judges on Leadership Skills will be yet another milestone in the expert training programmes of National Law University, Jodhpur.

NLUJ-eITEC Collaboration

Rajasthan which is also known as the “Land of Maharajas” is the largest state of India covering an area of about 342,239 sq. km. It comprises of 33 districts and its largest city is Jaipur, which is also its capital. Being located on the western side of the country, it shares its border with Pakistan to its northwest and to the west it shares its border with Sindh. To its north it has Punjab, Uttar Pradesh and Haryana to its northeast; to its southeast it has Madhya Pradesh and Gujarat to its southwest.

Rajasthan has royal grandeur and a glorious history. The history of Rajasthan goes back as far as Indus valley civilization, the foundation of this community took shape with the rise of western middle kingdoms such as the western Kshatrapas, who were the successors to the Indo-Scythians who invaded Ujjain and established the Saka era. This charming and captivating state of India is known for its brave kings, their deeds, interests in art and architecture among other virtues.

Rajasthani Culture dates back to the years of kings where it was previously called Rajputana whose codes of chivalry shaped social mores and dominated politics. Over the years it has been ruled by various kings including the Rajput, Marathas and even Muslim rulers, which resulted in the diverse culture of Rajasthan, bearing numerous beautiful forts with a wide variety in its architecture, language and customs of its people. Rajasthan, in spite of being a desert, has been endowed with beautiful sites that include various palaces, forts and pilgrim centres that define what Rajasthan is. The architectural beauty of Rajasthan is world renowned, forts, palaces, havelis, tombs, cenotaph and sculptures present across the geography of state, reveal the blend of multiple dynasties that ruled the ancient lands. Rajasthan has a rich heritage of its peculiar Art Culture & Architecture. Many of these art forms have survived through ages and are even part of present culture of Rajasthan. The architectural style in Rajasthan is as diverse as its people, evidenced by the exemplary sites of Islamic, Hindu, colonial and even modern architecture.

Rajasthan has a tradition of highly cultivated music and dance forms. The music is uncomplicated, raw and songs depict daily chores. Folk music is an integral part of Rajasthani culture. Ballads, Bhopas relate heroic deeds, love stories through folk songs. Bhajans and Banis with folk music instruments give it distinct taste. The Kalbeliya dance of Jaisalmer and Ghoomar dance from Udaipur have gained recognition internationally.

This rich tradition of Rajasthan reflects in the ethos and functioning of the grand relation between National Law University Jodhpur and The Indian Technical and Economic Cooperation (ITEC) Programme. ITEC courses are formulated to equip the participants with not just professional skills but also prepare them for an increasingly globalised world. In this backdrop, it's collaboration with National Law University Jodhpur serves to provide a thoroughly enriching experience seeped in the royal Rajasthani cultural tradition of hosting guests. The rich tradition of administration of justice in Rajasthan has continued with landmark judgments passed by its honourable judges. Contributions from stellar Academicians, Bar and Bench alike will open many avenues of learning of court management and contemporary legal dimensions for the participants. A virtual tour will be organized to familiarize the participants with the history, culture and traditions of Royal Rajasthan.

Course Objective & Pedagogy

The Seminar for Sudanese Principal District and Sessions Judges on Leadership Skills has been designed to enhance the proficiency of the participants in various aspects of their Court management. The three-day intensive seminar will include engrossing sessions administered by legal luminaries. The course reflects a multi-dimensional approach wherein it fuses the learning of court management skills with detailed understanding of maintaining professionalism, ethics and efficiency in all round governance.

The sessions will follow a pedagogy of lecture and discussion, designed to allow an interactive engagement for better analytical and critical understanding of the topics. It is with this aim that each session is set for a duration of one and a half hours, with the last half hour devoted to questions and answers.

Through this course, the participants will be able to better adapt to dynamic court-centric situations. Interactions with legal luminaries will familiarise the participants with best practices in Courts and will enrich each individual with new capabilities in judicial practices and functions.
