

‘Citizen Centric Governance and use of Digital Technology’

for

Latin American Countries

National Institute for Labour Economics Research and Development
Narela, Delhi

(12 February 2024- 24 February, 2024)

Tentative schedule

Day 1	1 st half	Introductory session
	2 nd half	Fundamentals of good governance, constitution and governance structure in India, the idea of minimum government and maximum governance
Day 2	1 st half	Decentralised governance/ Local self-governance/ Participatory governance: Panchayati Raj Institutions
	2 nd half	Fiscal policy and Taxation: Reforms, success stories and challenges
Day 3	1 st half	Digitisation of Tax system in India: Achievements and challenges
	2 nd half	Fiscal Federalism in India: Finance commissions, Centre-State relationship
Day 4	1 st half	Digital management of micro, small and medium enterprises: Udyam Portal.
	2 nd half	Digital transformation of agriculture sector
Day 5	1 st half	E-governance initiatives/ digitalisation of basic services: The JAMtrinity: Empowering citizens through Aadhar, Jan-Dhan Account
	2 nd half	Digitalisation of banking and transactions in India: Unified Payment Interface, digital banking
Day 6		Holiday
Day 7		Holiday
Day 8	1 st half	Learnings from digitalisation of health systems: Ayushman Bharat. Health Management Information System, healthcare infrastructure,
	2 nd half	Empowerment of women and child (Mission Shakti, Poshan, Saksham Anganwadi, Shakti Sadan, Palna etc.)
Day 9	1 st half	Education for all: Right to Education, New Education Policy, eLearning, vocational education and training
	2 nd half	Ensuring food security for all: Public Distribution System, One Nation - One Ration Card
Day 10	1 st half	SDG Goals and India: progress made and the road ahead
	2 nd half	Environmental Governance: Addressing the challenges of climate change
Day 11	1 st half	Welfare policies for tribal and indigenous people
	2 nd half	Digital management of urban infrastructure
Day 12	1 st half	Presentation of Term Paper
	2 nd half	Valedictory session