

About the Programme:

NCGG is organizing Mid-Career Training Programme for Township Administrators of Myanmar at NCGG Mussoorie, Uttarakhand (India) with the following objectives:

Programme Objectives:

At the end of the training Programme the officer trainees will be able to:

- Provide a platform for policy dialogue and knowledge sharing, thereby highlighting the role of good governance and public policy for sustainable development.
- Facilitate the sharing of lessons, cross-country experiences and best practices on governance, field administration and public policy in the region.
- Detailed insights into the frameworks adopted by the Government of India in implementing projects, including IT applications and e-government for attaining Millennium Development Goals.
- Detailed insights into the inter-disciplinary field of Public policy and Governance essentially in areas of: health, urban reforms, environment and many other areas.
- Field visit to good projects in various areas such as: Infrastructure development/Power projects/Transport and etc.

Programme Design and Pedagogy

The Mid Career Training Programme for Myanmar's Civil Servants combines on-campus training inputs at Mussoorie, followed by field visits in Uttarakhand, Delhi and nearby states

The on-campus training inputs would follow a modular approach covering the themes indicated below:

- Public policy & implementation
- Health care facilities in remote areas
- Changing paradigm of governance
- Social innovation in education outcomes
- Rural Housing
- Digital governance: Case studies of Passport Seva & MADAD
- Rejuvenation of rivers with special reference to Ganga
- Centralised public grievance redressal & monitoring system
- Investment promotion & entrepreneurship
- Approach to achieve Sustainable Development Goals by 2030
- Decentralized municipal solid waste management
- Circular Economy
- Approaches for inclusive Development
- Health governance in India
- Project planning: execution and monitoring – Jal Jeevan Mission
- Election Management
- Fintech and inclusion: An Overview
- Public-private partnerships in infrastructure development
- Leadership, coordination and communication

- Swamitva: land record management
- Best practices from various development schemes
- Planning and building eco-friendly SMART cities – case studies
- Policy intervention to strengthen governance: Case Studies
- Gender & development: policies and practices
- Disaster management with special reference to coastal region
- Inter-personal awareness and skills
- Motivation for desired outcomes
- Aadhar: A tool of good governance
- Skill India Programme
- Overview of rural development in India
- Overview of All India Services(AIS)
- E-governance and digital India UMANG
- Overview of national security scenario
- Vigilance administration
- Anti-corruption strategies

Classroom training inputs will be supplemented with group work, evaluation of case studies covering International and Indian experiences. The training methodology includes lectures, case studies, exercises, experience sharing presentations and field visits including interaction with practitioners.

Field Visits: Outside the classroom, activities will focus on field visits to important sites so that the participants get acquainted with history and culture of the country and also get to know of the latest technological and infrastructural developments in the country.

- a) Local Sight Seeing (You will be taken to important tourist destination and heritage points around the town)
- b) Visit to a district as part of the DM/SDM attachment to learn about the functioning and working of district and sub district administration
- c) Exposure visits to Indian Parliament/best projects in New Delhi(NCR)
- d) Heritage Visits: As part of the programme heritage visits will be organized for the officers in New Delhi and Agra.