

TRAINING PROPOSAL FOR GUYANESE POLICE PERSONNEL

Title of Training: Psychological Interview Techniques in Forensic Investigation

Duration of Training: 2 weeks (From 04/12/2023 to 15/12/2023)

Objective of the Training:

- (a) The first and foremost objective of this training module will be introducing Forensic Psychology as an expert subject area to Guyanese Police Personnel.
- (b) Additional to this, Police personnel will be trained on interview methods used in different Forensic Psychological Investigative Techniques following by hand on experience on such technologies.
- (c) Also the behavioral aspects of interviewing techniques will also be part of this training program.

Content to be covered in Training:

The training module prepared for the Guyanese Police Personnel will include:

- i. Detailed understanding about functioning and application of different Forensic Psychological Techniques used in Crime Investigation (SDS, LVA, Polygraph, BEOS and other techniques).
- ii. Elaborated explanation and usage of different types on interviewing techniques used in Crime Investigation.
- iii. Practical usage of behavioral interviewing methods for Crime Investigation.
- iv. Hands on training on different on different Forensic Psychological Techniques along with the use of different interviewing methods used there.
- v. Interaction with area experts to gain refined understanding of interviewing techniques used in Psychological Forensic Investigation.