

Course Name: Fingerprint Science and Questioned Document Examination

Dates: 17.02.2025 to 28.02.2025

Duration: 2 Week

Mode: Physical mode at NFSU, Gandhinagar Campus.

Objectives of the course:

- Objective of this Program is to identify the Role of Fingerprint
- and Questioned Documents in the Investigation of Crime.
- Examination of the white –collar crime and Case Studies of
- Questioned Documents.
- Introduction of AFIS.
- Analysis and Comparison of the Fingerprint.

Contents:

- Role of Fingerprint Science in the Investigation of Crime.
- Questioned Document Examination and white-collar crime.
- Case Studies - Questioned Document Examination and white-collar crime Fingerprint as Reliable Biometrics.
- Visible Plastic and Chance print at the Scene of Crime.
- Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AFIS).
- Do's and Don'ts to be Observed by Police Officers in Fingerprint Work.
- Analysis and Comparison of Fingerprint and Live Scanner Utility.
- Fingerprinting of Deceased Persons.
- Chemical Methods of Fingerprint Development.
- Types of White-Collar Crimes.
- Various Substrates for Development of Fingerprints.
- Various Methods for Development of Fingerprints.
- Protocol for Procurement of Handwriting Standards for Comparison.
- Passport, Credit Card, Security Documents-Security Features-Demo.
- Cases on Banking Frauds.
- Examination of Secret Text, Charred Documents and Indented Writing, Obliteration.
- Methods of Fraud Prevention and Deterrence.
- Methods and Alteration of Fingerprinting and their Detection.
- Importance of Forensic Evidences in the court.
- Psychological methods of Investigation.
- Hands-on-training.