

National Dairy Development Board, Anand

International programme on Dairy Development through Cooperatives
Objective: Understanding the Indian model of Dairy Cooperatives and its sustainability.
Venue: NDDB, Anand	Duration: 06 Days

Course Content

Presentation of country specific cooperative development, challenges and opportunities
Role of Cooperative Business Model for enhancing rural livelihood in India
Visit to NDDB's visitors' gallery (Parikrama) for an overview of NDDB's activities
National and International dairy scenario
Visit to village level dairy cooperative society, interaction with milk producers and Management Committee members
Importance of good governance in Institution Building in cooperatives
Visit to Kaira Milk Union, Anand (Amul)
Visit to Amul-Fed Dairy, Gandhinagar
Visit to Sabarmati River Front Stay in Ahmedabad
Visits to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Sabarmati Ashram- Adalaj Step-well- Shopping of handicrafts at Law Garden, Ahmedabad
Return to Anand in the evening
Quality Assurance in dairy value chain
Visit to NDDB-CALF Ltd: State of Art Laboratory in dairy and honey
Discussion on Process and Product development in NDDB
Visit to Indian Dairy Machinery Company: Bulk Milk Cooler & Poly-film Manufacturing Units
NDDB's efforts in manure value chain for augmenting farmers' income
Innovations & convergence for Manure Value Chain: Visit to Mujhkuva Dairy Cooperative Society and SuDhan Manure Processing Plant
Visit to Amul Chocolate Plant
Renewal energy adoption in dairy plant operations
Visit to Statue of Unity, Kevadia
Open Forum, Identifying areas for mutual collaboration Feedback & Concluding session