

Audit and Internal control for Financial Discipline (in Russian): Through this course learner will gain a comprehensive understanding of how to assess and mitigate risks within an organization by learning to identify potential weaknesses in processes, implement preventative measures, ensure accurate financial reporting, and comply with relevant regulations, all through the evaluation of internal controls and the execution of audits. The main area which shall be cover in the said course is Understanding the Internal Control Framework, Risk Assessment and Identification, Control Activities and Procedures, Audit Methodology, Fraud Detection and Investigation, Reporting and Communication, Compliance with Regulations etc.