

Course Module

Name of the Course: Foreign Course for Multi Countries Police Officers on “Counter Violence Extremism and De-radicalization” Under
ITEC Programme

Duration of the Course: From 08.06.2026 to 12.06.2026 (5 Days)

Course Coordinator: Sh. O.P. Sharma, Dy. SP, CDTI, Ghaziabad

| Time                                         | Session | Topic                                                                                                                                                                    | Faculty                                              |
|----------------------------------------------|---------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Monday 1st Day: 08.06.2026 |         |                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                      |
| 0930-1000Hrs                             |         | Registration of the course participantsDistribution of welcome kit                                                                                                   | Sh. Omvir PrasadSharma, Dy.SP, CDTIGhaziabad |
| 1000-1030Hrs                             |         | Arrival of Chief Guest andInauguration of the course & BriefingGroup PhotographHigh-tea                                                                      | Director, CDTI,Ghaziabad                         |
| 1030-1150Hrs                             | I       | Radicalization and Counter strategies                                                                                                                                    | Sh. Vikram Singh,Greater Noida                   |
| Course Break 1150-1200 Hrs            |         |                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                      |
| 1200-1320Hrs                             | II      | Biological and Chemical attacks-suspicious activity reporting system                                                                                                 | Sh. Vikram Singh,Greater Noida                   |
| Lunch Break 1320-1400                 |         |                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                      |
| 1400-1520Hrs                             | III     | Intelligence Collection in CounterExtremism Operations:➤ Human intelligence (HUMINT)➤ Open-source intelligence (OSINT)➤ Intelligence analysis techniques | Sh. N.N.D Dubey,Retd. DIG BSF                    |
| Tea Break 1520-1540                   |         |                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                      |
| 1540-1700Hrs                             | IV      | Global Terrorism: De-radicalizationStrategy and Process based on globalexperiences and its implications insouth Asia                                         | Major GeneralSh. Roopesh Metha                   |

| Tuesday 2 nd Day: 09.06.2026   |          |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                        |
|-------------------------------------------|----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| 1000-1120 Hrs                             | I        | Emerging trends in terrorism and how to counter it. Role of family, religious scholars, educators, and NGOs in de-radicalization process.                         | Guest Faculty from IB                                  |
| Tea Break 1120-1140                       |          |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                        |
| 1140-1300 Hrs                             | II       | Case studies on successful Counter Extremism operations➤ Lessons learned from major operations➤ Operational Coordination and intelligence success stories | Guest Faculty from IB                                  |
| Lunch Break 1300-1400                     |          |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                        |
| 1400 -1700 Hrs                            | III & IV | Study Tour                                                                                                                                                        | Sh. Pramod Kumar Joshi, Vice Principal, CDTI Ghaziabad |
| Wednesday 3 th Day: 10.06.2026 |          |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                        |
| 1000-1700 hrs                             | I -IV    | Study Tour                                                                                                                                                        | Sh. Pramod Kumar Joshi, Vice Principal, CDTI Ghaziabad |
| Thursday 4 th Day: 11.06.2026  |          |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                        |
| 1000-1120 Hrs                             | I        | Countering Terrorism and Narco Terror with special reference to India                                                                                             | Sh. Rakesh Asthana,                                    |
| Tea Break 1120-1140                       |          |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                        |
| 1140-1300 Hrs                             | II       | Global landscape of violent extremism: Trends, typology and ideologies - examples and case studies                                                                | Sh. K. K. Sharma, New Delhi                            |
| Lunch Break 1300-1400                     |          |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                        |
| 1400-1520 Hrs                             | III      | Understanding Counter Terrorism strategy of India in the context of Jammu & Kashmir - Case studies                                                                | Sh. K. K. Sharma, New Delhi                            |
| Tea Break 1520-1540                       |          |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                        |
| 1540-1700 Hrs                             | IV       | Experience sharing on Counter Violence, Extremism and De-radicalization                                                                                           | Sh. Pramod Kumar Joshi, Vice Principal, CDTI Ghaziabad |

| Friday 5 th Day: 12.06.2026 |     |                                                                                                                                              |                                           |
|----------------------------------------|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| 1000-1120Hrs                       | I   | Role of civilian communities in preventing the extremism.Role of policing in counter the extremism.                                      | Sh. Ajit Kumar Malik,Faridabad.       |
| Tea Break 1120-1140                    |     |                                                                                                                                              |                                           |
| 1140-1300Hrs                       | II  | What is extremism, how violent extremism different then extremism.How extremism is disrupting the implementation of government policies. | Sh. Ajit Kumar Malik,Faridabad.       |
| Lunch Break 1300-1400                  |     |                                                                                                                                              |                                           |
| 1400-1520Hrs                       | III | Collection of Feedback Forms "A"Collection of Feedback Forms "B"                                                                         | Sh. O.P Sharma, Dy.SP, CDTI Ghaziabad |
| 1520-1640Hrs                       | IV  | Valediction                                                                                                                           | Chief Guest                               |
| High Tea 1640-1730                     |     |                                                                                                                                              |                                           |

 26/5/2028
 Pramod Kumar Joshi
 Vice Principal
 CDTI, Ghaziabad